

Essay Cover Sheet

Don't forget the all-important cover sheet when you assemble your essay for the Optimist Club of Fort Worth's Essay Contest. Optimist International has rules about placing a cover sheet in front of the essays because they are judged by a team which never knows the student's identity until the judging is finished. Also there is to be no personal identification in the body of the essay. The cover sheet is numbered with the essay at the time of submission and is used to identify the winning essays at the end of the contest.

Optimist International Rule:

Each entry must begin with a cover page containing: the official topic, number of words (no more than 800), writer's name, address, phone number, name of school and date of birth.

How the Cover Sheet Looks:

Is Optimism the Key to Achieving the Dreams you iMagine? (note the case use in "iMagine")
